7. CO's MESSAGE

Dear Cadets, Officers, Volunteers, and Parents,

I hope this message finds you well and that each of you had a chance to enjoy a safe, restful, and memorable summer. For those who attended summer camp, I trust you returned with new skills, friendships, and experiences that will serve you well both inside and outside of our corps.

As we step into this new training year, I want to extend my deepest thanks to our officers, volunteers, and parents. Your dedication and support are the foundation of everything we achieve together. To our cadets, you are the heart of our program. Each year you demonstrate resilience, teamwork, and leadership, and I look forward to seeing how you will grow and inspire one another in the months ahead.

This year is especially exciting as we begin to set our sights on 2026. While that may seem far off, the preparation starts now. The training, challenges, and opportunities ahead will shape not only our cadet program but also the leaders you are becoming. Together, we will make 2026 a year of achievement, pride, and unforgettable experiences.

Let's carry the energy of summer into the new year, ready to train hard, support one another, and set the standard for excellence. I am proud to serve alongside each of you.

Welcome back, let's make this year our best yet.

Best regards,

Lt(N) Vu
